

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

The Legislative Branch: Congress

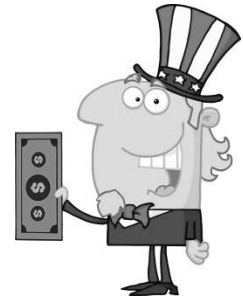

Fill in the Blanks:

The United States legislative branch is called: _____. Congress makes _____. The two “houses” of Congress are the _____ and the _____. The House of Representatives has _____ members while the Senate has _____ members. The word for a two-house legislature is _____. Members of the House of Reps serve for _____ years while members of the Senate serve for _____ years. To serve in the House of Reps you must be _____ years old and _____ to serve in the Senate. The powers for Congress can be found in _____ of the US Constitution. Powers that are listed right in the Constitution are known as _____. Another name for the “necessary & proper clause” is the _____ clause. A power that is not listed in the Constitution but is suggested is known as _____. When congress removes someone from office it is known as _____. An agreement between two or more countries is known as a _____. In addition to confirming treaties the Senate confirms _____.

Word Bank:

| | | | | |
|-----|--------------------------|---------------------------|-------------|---------|
| 2 | 435 | Article I | Congress | Elastic |
| 6 | Enumerated-Powers | Implied-Powers | Impeachment | Laws |
| 100 | House of Representatives | Presidential Appointments | Senate | Treaty |

Identify -the picture with the “Enumerated Power” from your notes

Invention

USA

China

Answer Key:

- 1. Congress
- 2. Laws
- 3. Senate
- 4. House of Representatives
- 5. 435
- 6. 100
- 7. Bicameral
- 8. 2
- 9. 6
- 10.25
- 11.30
- 12. Article I
- 13. Enumerated
- 14. Elastic clause
- 15. Implied
- 16. Impeachment
- 17. Treaty
- 18. Presidential Appointments
- 19. Coin Money
- 20. Postal Service
- 21. Support Army & Navy
- 22. Raise Taxes
- 23. Patents & Copyrights
- 24. Regulate interstate trade
- 25. Create lower courts
- 26. Regulate naturalization
- 27. Approve treaties
- 28. Impeach government officials