

POINT OF VIEW CRAFTIVITY

the pig's perspective

The wolf is bad because
he blew down my house.
He's also very mean because
he tried to eat me!
I'm mad at the wolf
because he ate my brothers!

the wolf's perspective

I just wanted a cup of sugar for my old granny birthday cake I blew down your houses because I had a cold. I ate up your brothers because it couldn't leave a good dinner
there so I ate him up.

SAMPLE PHOTOS

Sample writing piece—After reading both stories (The Three Little Pigs and The True Story of the Three Little Pigs) we discussed the significance of point of view. We discussed as a class how point of view (perspective) is similar to seeing a situation through the eyes of the another person. This led to the discussion of the importance of the glasses and how they relate to the project. Students then picked which character they wanted to write about. The student samples turned out quite humorous!

The student above took the perspective of the Wolf.

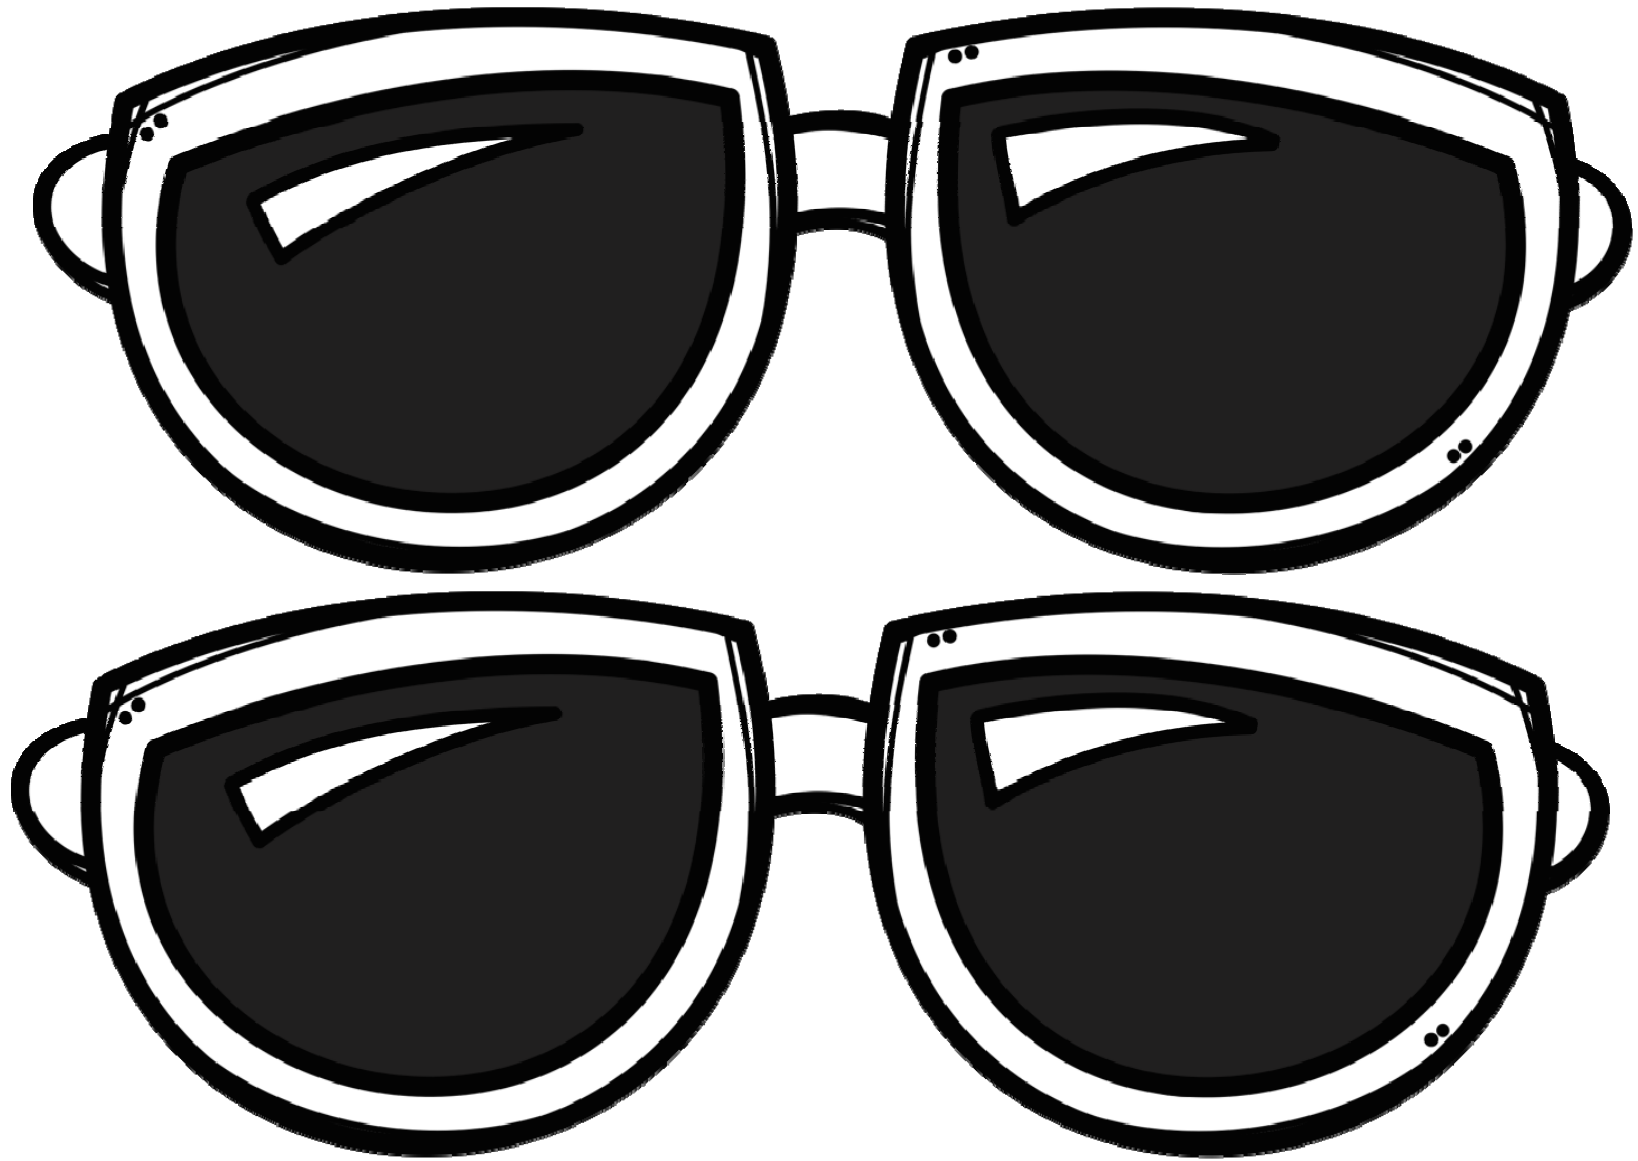

"I'm not a bad guy. I just wanted a cup of sugar. You did not need to say my granny could sit on a pin. I just sneezed. Sorry". Here the student is justifying his actions in The True Story of the Three Little Pigs.
