

Name _____ Date _____

Use this week's cover story, "Back to the Wild," to answer the questions below. For questions 1–6, circle the letter next to the best answer. If you need more space to write your response to question 7, use the back of this page.

1. What happened on January 4, 2021? A. Gray wolves were added to the endangered-species list. B. Gray wolves were removed from the endangered-species list. C. Gray wolves were moved from Canada to Yellowstone National Park. D. It was made illegal to kill gray wolves.	4. What was an immediate result of delisting gray wolves? A. Ranchers put up portable wire fences. B. The U.S. government was sued. C. The gray wolf population decreased. D. Conservation goals for recovery were met.
2. How many gray wolves currently live in the United States? A. 31 B. 500 C. more than 6,000 D. about a million	5. How does the information in "Gray Wolf Facts" contribute to the article? A. It explains how gray wolves can survive in smaller populations. B. It describes what to do if you see a gray wolf. C. It shows how the gray wolf acts as a predator. D. It shares more basic information about gray wolves.
3. How do some ranchers feel about the size of the wolf population? A. They are excited to install wire fencing. B. They are excited to benefit from having wolves nearby. C. They are worried the wolves will kill their livestock. D. They are worried that wolves will soon be extinct.	6. According to the article, what are groups of wolves called? A. packs B. herds C. camps D. flocks

7. What are the contrasting views presented in the article?
