

THE MOTHER OF TORNADOES

Supercell thunderstorms are bigger, more powerful, and more dangerous than regular thunderstorms. On a radar screen, they look like mini hurricanes, with swirling winds. They often produce flooding rains, hailstones, and, sometimes, tornadoes.

