

Name _____ Date _____

Use this week's Kid of the Year coverage, on pages 4–7, to answer the questions. For questions 1–6, circle the letter next to the best answer. If you need more space to write your response to question 7, use the back of this page.

PAGES 4–5: GITANJALI RAO1. What does Kindly do?

- A. It encourages kids to be kind to one another.
- B. It notices bullying online.
- C. It builds small communities around common interests.
- D. It connects teenagers with celebrities.

PAGES 6–7: KID OF THE YEAR, CONTINUED4. What do Jordan Reeves and Bellen Woodard have in common?

- A. They founded organizations to support their cause.
- B. They have a physical disability.
- C. They live in Virginia.
- D. They've won awards.

PAGES 4–5: GITANJALI RAO2. What problem is Gitanjali Rao currently trying to solve?

- A. climate change
- B. cyberbullying
- C. contaminated water
- D. the digital divide

PAGES 6–7: KID OF THE YEAR, CONTINUED5. Why did Tyler Gordon start painting?

- A. to raise money for a special surgery
- B. to communicate with classmates in school
- C. to overcome personal challenges
- D. to connect with celebrities

PAGES 4–5: GITANJALI RAO3. What does Gitanjali Rao do in her spare time?

- A. bake
- B. ride her bike
- C. swim
- D. paint

PAGES 6–7: KID OF THE YEAR, CONTINUED6. How did Ian McKenna fight hunger when COVID-19 hit?

- A. He started virtual cooking classes.
- B. He cooked meals for the hungry.
- C. He set up a gardening hotline.
- D. all of the above

7. What is Gitanjali Rao's main message to others?
