

Station 2 Handout (G5-8)

	"School Names Fuel Debate" Evidence	"What's in a Name and a Logo" Evidence
CLAIM 1: The issue of school/sport names is not new.	"For years, activists for racial justice have been calling for such schools to be renamed." (paragraph 6)	"Ever since the 1960s, Native Americans have objected to the use of these names." (paragraph 2)
CLAIM 2: Some schools/teams have already made changes to their names.
CLAIM 3: Some people state racism is a part of the issue.

Station 4 Handout

Purpose of "What's in a Name and a Logo"	SELECT ONE A) To inform readers of an issue by presenting evidence supporting both sides of the issue B) To convince readers to agree with the author's opinion C) To entertain readers with a story
Purpose of "School Names Fuel Debate"	SELECT ONE A) To inform readers of an issue by presenting evidence supporting both sides of the issue B) To convince readers to agree with the author's opinion C) To entertain readers with a story
How is the author's purpose different from "What's in a Name and a Logo" to "School Names Fuel Debate"?

Station 5 Directions:

Use the RACE strategy to respond to the following:

Do you think schools and sports teams with possible offensive names should be renamed? Why or why not? Use facts and details from both articles to support your answer.