

Holidays in America

Name: _____

©Tobin, 2013

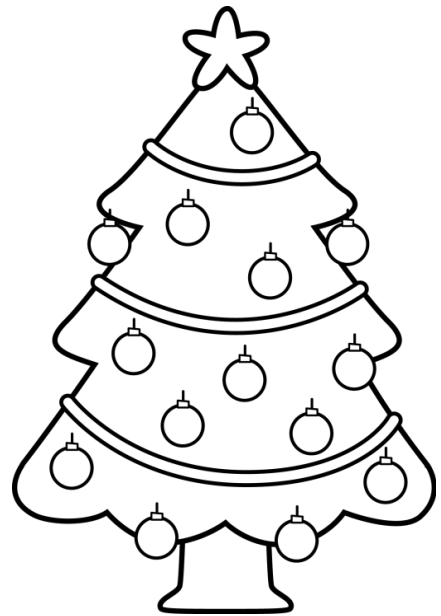

Many Americans celebrate Christmas. During this time, families and friends come together.

Families decorate their homes with wreaths and lights.

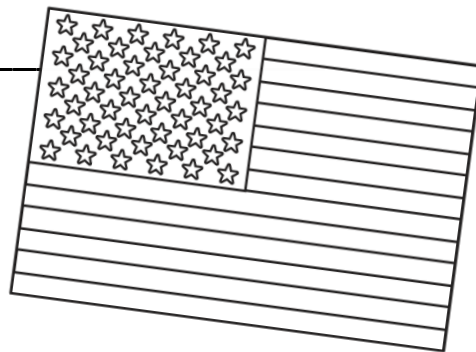

A jolly man named Santa visits homes while families sleep on Christmas Eve. He leaves gifts in stockings and presents under the tree. Children like to leave cookies and milk for him to snack on.

A Christmas tradition is to decorate a tree with ornaments and a star or angel at the top. Under this tree is where families and Santa put gifts.

Name: _____

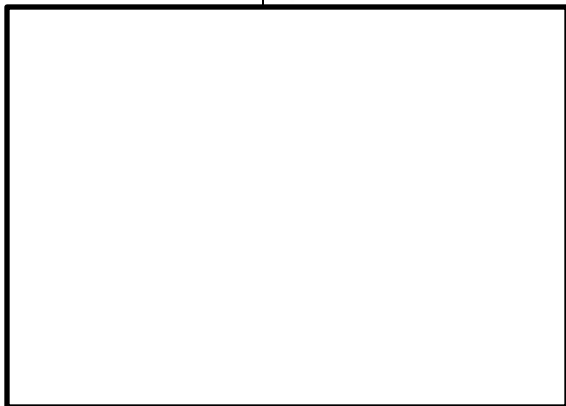

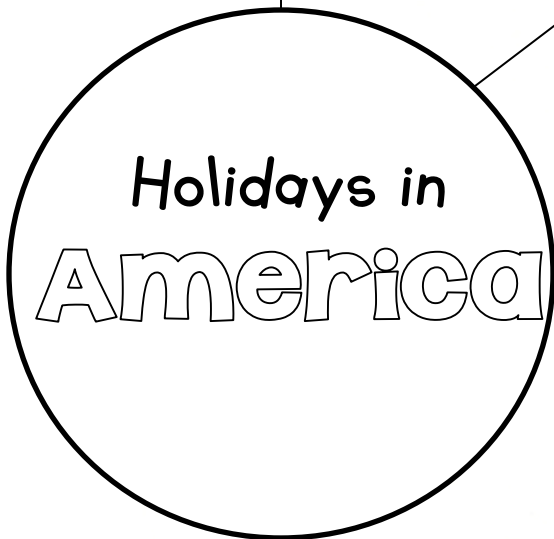

Holidays in America

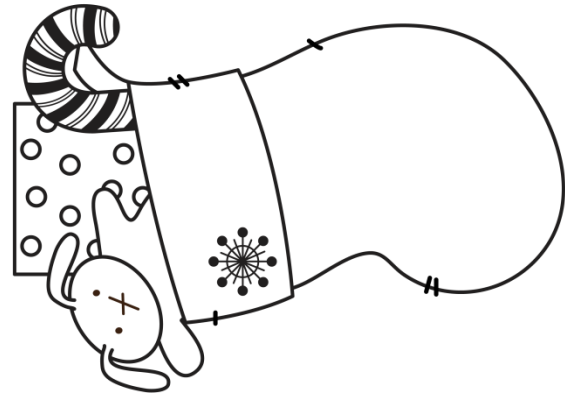

Many Americans celebrate a holiday called _____. Families get together and decorate a _____. They put _____ on the tree for decoration.

On Christmas Eve, a man named _____ comes to visit homes to put gifts in _____ and under the _____.

Name: _____

Holidays in America

Name: _____

Holidays in America

When is it celebrated?

How is it celebrated?

Unique info...

Merry Christmas!

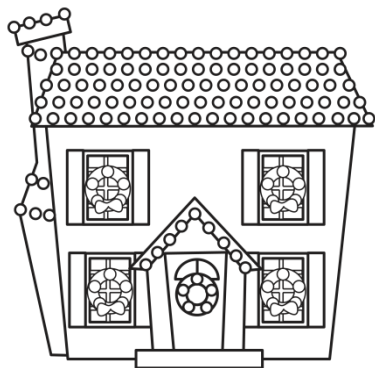

Families celebrate Christmas in America.

Christmas takes place on December 25th. Christmas Eve is on December 24th.

Santa brings children and families gifts on Christmas and leaves the gifts under a decorated Christmas tree.

Families decorate their houses with wreaths and lights.