

1. The Columbian Exchange had both positive and negative effects on the New World.
_____ spread during this time.

- a. The Reformation
- b. Mold
- c. Diseases

2. How did the conquistadors gain control over the Aztec and Inca Empires and their wealth?

3. The tool of navigation that showed the direction of magnetic north was the

- a. Caravel
- b. Compass
- c. Carrack
- d. Quadrant

4. The interchange of plants, animals and disease between the Americas and the continents of Europe, Asia and Africa is known as

- a. Circumnavigation
- b. The reformation
- c. The Columbian Exchange
- d. The Northwest Passage

5. What was one result from the defeat of the armada sent by Spain?

- a. The Reformation began
- b. Spain controlled the world's sea trade
- c. France became the world's largest empire
- d. The way was clear for England to start colonies in North America