

A Big Sneeze

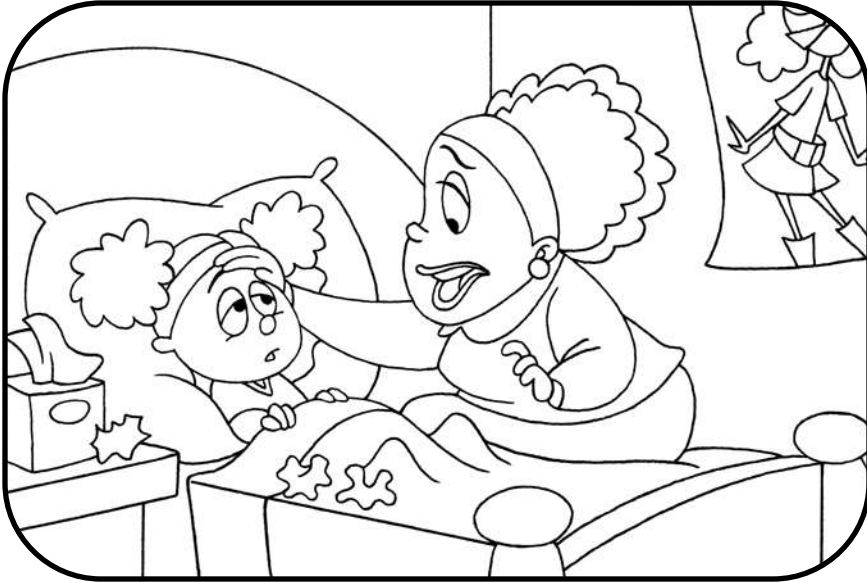

Clare does not feel well.
She gives a big sneeze.

She wipes her red nose.
“My nose hurts,” Clare moans.

Mom sits on the bed. She sets her hand on Clare's face.

"Germs can make you ill," Mom tells Clare.

"You will get well," she adds.

"Germs! What are germs?"
asks Clare.

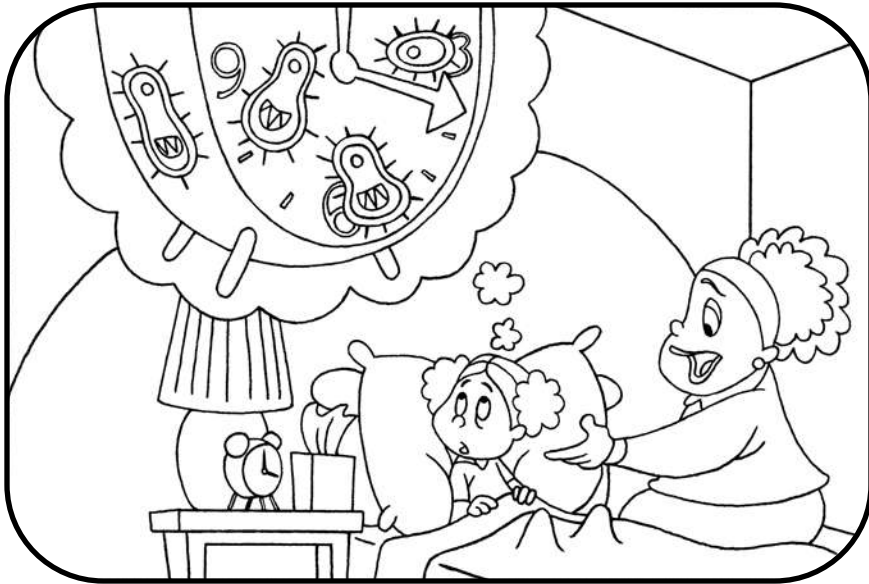

Mom tells her, “A germ is a bug
that makes us feel ill.”

asks Clare.

“Germs get inside of us.
They come and go from place to place,” Mom tells Clare.
“They could be on the clock,”
she adds.

Clare gives a big sneeze.
“There are lots of germs
in a sneeze!” Mom adds.

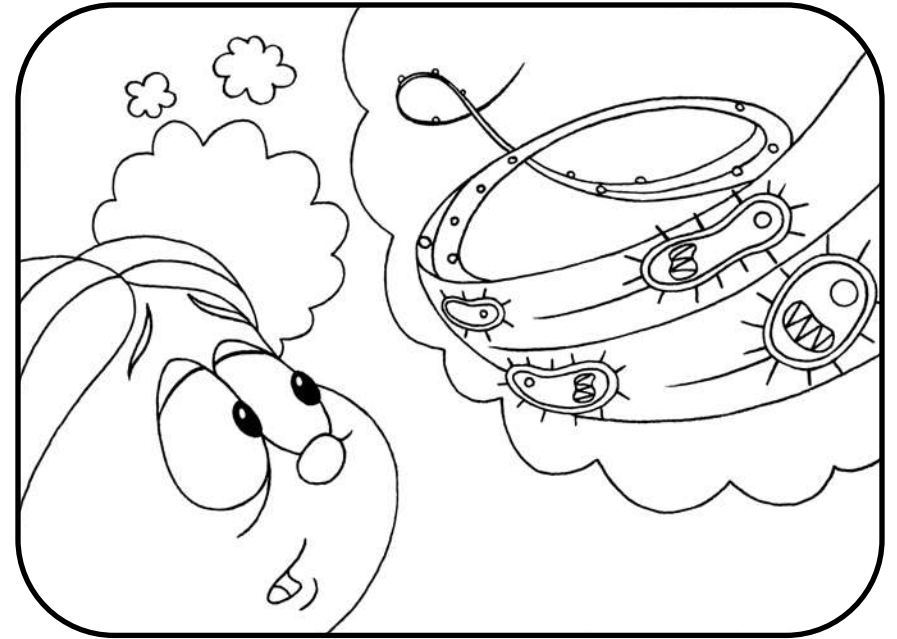

Clare wipes her red nose.

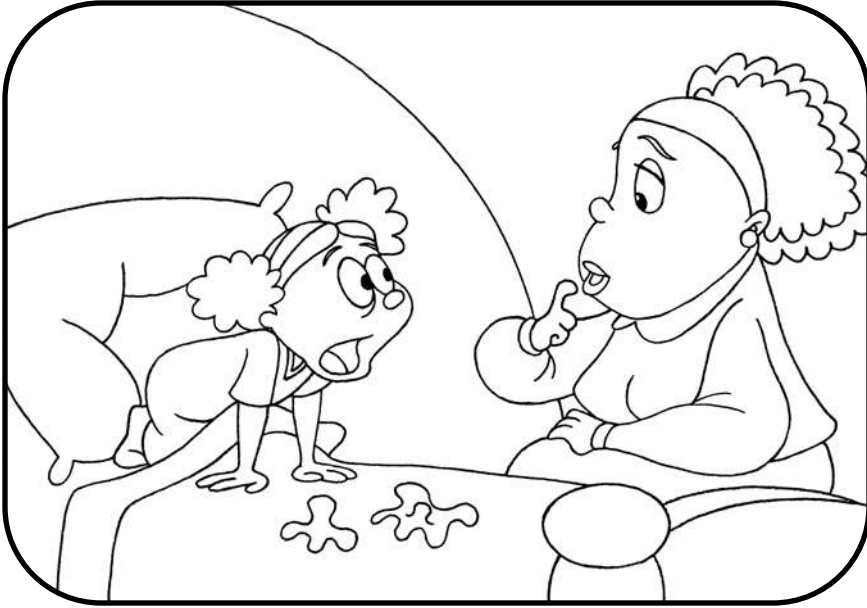

“I do not see a lot of germs,”
she tells Mom.

“You cannot see the germs. They are
sly. Germs stir in the breeze when you sneeze,” Mom tells Clare.

“What will stop germs?”
she asks.

“Germs do not like soap!
clean,” Mom adds.
Clare gives a big sneeze.

She runs to the sink. "I need to clean my hands with soap," yells Clare.
