Going to the Doctor

Ana woke up at night with a high fever and a sharp pain in the right ear. Her mom took her to a doctor's office early in the morning, but they had to wait for half an hour before they could see the doctor. The doctor's name was Mrs. Brown. She checked Ana's heart, throat, and ears. After that, she told Ana that her fever and headache are caused by an ear infection that could be treated with some ear drops. Ana and her mom thanked the doctor and then went to the pharmacy to buy the ear drops. Finally, Ana and her mom went home so that Ana can rest in bed.
